This spacious villa sits on a corner plot in a quiet street of Altea Hills. On the main floor there is a very generous combined dining and seating area with wood beamed ceilings, a pellet fireplace and stunning panoramic sea views. The adjacent Spanish style kitchen with utility room is fully equipped. Both kitchen and lounge lead directly to a partly covered terrace that overlooks the Altea bay with the impressive Mediterranean sea, the mountains and the towns. The master bedroom on this level, has a large dressing area and its own en suite bathroom as well as direct access to the terrace, allowing you to wake up to the views of the sea. The lower level includes a generous seating area and three more bedrooms with two bathrooms, one of them ensuite. There is a kidney shaped pool at this level, surrounded by the terrace and the garden. Furthermore there is a large storage area and a garage for one car. The generous plot provides ample space for seating areas where you can enjoy the stunning panoramic sea views. The house is equipped with room units for air-conditioning as well as central heating with radiators. This is the perfect house for those seeking a lot of space and first class views.
