This beautiful villa is located in a quiet cul-de-sac from where it enjoys peaceful views across the valley and the mountains. The property is perfectly maintained and offers great value for money. On the main floor there is a beautiful entrance with a large window drawing the attention towards the beautiful views. The combined living and dining room with fire place and high beamed ceilings is very cozy. The large, fully equipped kitchen has a direct access onto the terrace, ideal for al fresco dining watching the sunset. On this main floor there is also a guest toilet and a large master bedroom with dressing room and ensuite bathroom with shower and bath tub. Upstairs there is a room that could be used as third bedroom, office or hobby room. On the pool level there is separate bedroom with ensuite bathroom, a sauna and a storage room with a kitchen. The villa has air-conditioning, central heating, solar panels with a home battery and the private swimming pool is equipped with an automatic salt electrolysis system. It also has a beautiful low- maintenance garden with garden with mature fruit and palm trees.
