Nestled in a peaceful cul-de-sac, this impeccably maintained villa enjoys stunning open views over the valley and surrounding mountains, offering privacy, tranquility, and exceptional value. The main level welcomes you with a spacious entrance hall, where a large picture window perfectly frames the breathtaking scenery. The bright and airy living and dining area features high beamed ceilings and a fireplace, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. The fully equipped kitchen opens directly onto the terrace, providing the perfect setting for outdoor dining and enjoying spectacular sunsets. Also on this level is a guest toilet and a generous master suite complete with a walk-in dressing area and an en-suite bathroom with both a bathtub and separate shower. The upper floor offers a versatile additional room, ideal as a third bedroom, home office, or hobby space. On the lower level, a private guest suite with en-suite bathroom provides comfortable accommodation for family and visitors. This floor also includes a storage room and a fully equipped summer kitchen. The property benefits from air conditioning, central heating, and an energy-efficient solar panel system with battery storage. Outside, the beautifully landscaped, low-maintenance garden features mature palm and fruit trees, creating a delightful Mediterranean setting.
