This completely renovated villa combines Ibiza vibes with authentic Spanish charm and beautiful sea views. Upon entering through the impressive wooden entrance gate, you immediately experience the impressive appearance of this house. When descending the stairs the property offers spectacular sea views. This unique, south-facing villa, surrounded by lush greenery, is located on a spacious plot in a quiet and serene environment offering lots of privacy. In addition to the main house, the property features two separate lower level guest apartments, one of which has a fully equipped kitchen, ideal for family or guests. For creative purposes there is a studio with a large work space and a private terrace, surrounded by greenery. The layout of the villa covers three floors. The villa offers various options for relaxation, including a private swimming pool and an attractive outdoor bar with a fully equipped outdoor kitchen. This is the ideal place to enjoy a Mediterranean lifestyle. The double carport offers ample parking and has easy access from the street. The complete renovation and stylish furnishings make this villa immediately ready to move in, while there are also plenty of opportunities for further adjustments, expansion or personalization.
