This classy apartment combines space with high quality materials and a fantastic sea view across the bay of Altea. Located in a small residence in Altea Hills, known for its 24-hours security, it offers the comfort of a villa with a private pool but with the practicality of an apartment. The apartment has a bright living room with large sliding windows and direct access onto the very spacious partly covered terrace with private pool and sun awnings. There are three bedrooms and two bathrooms. The master bedroom has a dressing and an ensuite bathroom with shower and bathtub. The kitchen is fully equipped and there is also a practical laundry room. The apartment has marble floors throughout, central air-conditioning, under floor heating, a fireplace and electric window blinds. There is also a guest toilet, a large private garage and store room to underline the residential and exclusive character of this beautiful home.
