This practical villa is located at the end of a dead end street in a quiet residential area near a supermarket and with easy access to Altea centre. The villa is compact but has everything for a comfortable lifestyle. It has a spacious living room, a fitted kitchen and two covered terraces. In the house there are two bedrooms and two bathrooms, one of which is en-suite. The house has central heating, a gas fireplace and air conditioning. There is also a separate guest bedroom with bathroom, a utility room and an outdoor kitchen with barbecue. Around the pool there is a large sun terrace with beautiful sea views.
