This beautiful apartment is located in Sierra de Altea, ideally situated between Altea La Vella and Altea Hills. Thanks to its privileged location, it enjoys excellent sunshine throughout the day, together with spectacular panoramic views over the Bay of Altea and the surrounding mountains. The beautifully maintained residential complex is gated and benefits from a concierge service, offering both privacy and peace of mind. The apartment features a bright living room with an open-plan kitchen, opening directly onto a 53 m² south-facing terrace. From here, you can enjoy breathtaking sea views and beautiful sunsets, making it the perfect setting for outdoor living. The property offers two bedrooms and two bathrooms, one of which is en suite. It also includes a private underground parking space, a large storage room and access to two communal swimming pools. The Mortex flooring throughout the apartment provides a contemporary base and offers excellent potential for further updating, allowing the property to be transformed into a stylish and modern Mediterranean home.
