This beautiful modern villa is located in the popular area of El Planet in Altea, known for the large plots and the proximity of the beaches and amenities. The villa is currently under construction and kitchen and bathrooms can be completely personalized to your taste. The impressive driveway leads to the entrance where the beautiful view immediately catches the attention. On this entrance floor, there is a large kitchen with island and pantry, a dining room and a living room. All rooms have a direct access onto the terrace. On this same floor, there are two large bedrooms, each with its en-suite bathroom, and an office. Downstairs there are two more bedrooms, also with own en-suite bathroom, a living room with open kitchen and a wine bodega. This floor can also be used as a self-contained guest apartment. The villa is built with first-class materials and features underfloor heating, central air-conditioning, and electric blinds.
