This semi-detached house is located in a quiet and residential area of La Nucia, close to Altea. The property has great views of the mountains and is built on three levels. The living room with fireplace has a large and sunny terrace next to it. Also on this level are an equipped kitchen with laundry room as well as one bedroom and bathroom. The first floor has two more bedrooms with a shared bathroom. In the underbuilt there is a guest bedroom and bathroom, as well as a private garage. With central air conditioning and heating it makes for a comfortable home all year round. The spacious outside area with many terraces is absolutely perfect to enjoy the mild Spanish climate and lifestyle. There is direct access from the property to the communal pool. This is the perfect home for holidays or for all year round living.
