This apartment is located on the promenade between the lovely villages of Albir and Altea. With bars, restaurants and shops nearby, a car is no longer necessary. The breathtaking frontal sea views are the eye-catcher of the combined living and dining room. Even from the kitchen with integrated laundry room, you can look out over the sea. Adjacent to the living room is a covered and glazed terrace with large sliding windows, where all year round you can enjoy the enchanting sea views and the soothing sound of the waves crashing. The apartment has two spacious bedrooms and two beautiful, modern bathrooms. Unique for this first-line location is the communal swimming pool and garden. In addition, the apartment has a private parking space and storage space. This is without a doubt an exceptional first-line object. The property is fully ready to move into and provides a rare opportunity for those who dream of living by the sea.
